LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I (read in Spanish)

Please be seated.

ACTS 1:1-11

In the first book, Theophilus, I dealt with all that Jesus did and taught until the day he was taken up, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. He presented himself alive to them by many proofs after he had suffered, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. While meeting with them, he enjoined them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for “the promise of the Father about which you have heard me speak; for John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

When they had gathered together they asked him, “Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?”

He answered them, “It is not for you to know the times or seasons that the Father has established by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.” When he had said this, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him from their sight. While they were looking intently at the sky as he was going, suddenly two men dressed in white garments stood beside them. They said, “Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky? This Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven will return in the same way as you have seen him going into heaven.”

REV. JOHN I. JENKINS, C.S.C., President of the University

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please stand.

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father
 before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
 and by the Holy Spirit
 was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead
 and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Response: Lord, hear our prayer.

English:
 For the Church throughout the world: may divisions which separate Christians, one from another, be overcome so that there may be one fold under the one Shepherd, Jesus the Christ: let us pray to the Lord.

Portuguese:
 For peacemakers, for an end to the shedding of blood and every form of terrorism, for victims of war, for the safety of our men and women in the Armed Services, and for the well-being of their families: let us pray to the Lord.

Vietnamese:
 For this University of Our Lady, for all who live, work, study, and do research here: may the mission of Catholic higher education be a voice of hope in a society seeking wisdom and insight: let us pray to the Lord.

French:
 For those who farm and live off the land; for all who work the fields to feed others; for those who suffer the effects of pollution and environmental degradation; and for all who strive to protect the environment: let us pray to the Lord.

German:
 For the graduates of the Class of 2015: may what they have learned and received here at Notre Dame, inside the classroom, within the residence halls, and in their faith communities, help shape their future lives as responsible citizens in the world community: let us pray to the Lord.

Hausa:
 For God's blessings upon the Class of 2015: as it faces the challenges and opportunities of the years ahead, may it seek first to serve others in the spirit of Christ: let us pray to the Lord.

Irish:
 For the families and friends of our graduates, and in appreciation for their constant love and support over the past years: may God richly bless them for their generosity of spirit: let us pray to the Lord.

Chinese:
 For refugees, the poor, and the defenseless, especially the unborn, and for those rejected because of illness, ability, race or ethnicity; for all those who live on the margins of society: let us pray to the Lord.

English:
 For all the deceased, including members of the Notre Dame family who passed away this academic year: faculty, staff, parents, alumni, trustees, University benefactors, and Holy Cross religious; we remember in a special way Fr. Theodore Hesburgh, president emeritus, who passed away this past February, and these students who died this past year: Daniel Kim, sophomore, and Lisa Yang, senior: may they be raised up by the power of God's Spirit to the joys of eternal life: let us pray to the Lord.

O Clap Your Hands VAUGHAN WILLIAMS

*O clap your hands, all you people,
 Shout unto God with a voice of triumph.
 For the Lord most high is terrible,
 He is a great King over all the earth.
 God has gone up with a shout, the Lord with the Sound of a trumpet.*

*Sing praises to God, sing praises unto our King.
 For God is the King of all the earth,
 Sing ye praises every one that hath understanding.
 God reigneth over the heathen,
 God sitteth upon the throne of His holiness.
 Sing praises unto our King.*

In this free land by you our lot is cast;
Oh, be our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay;
Your Word our law, your paths our chosen way.

BLESSING OF THE FLAG

Then the hymn continues:

3. Now with the mind of Christ set us on fire;
That unity may be our great desire;
Give joy and peace; give faith to hear your call;
And readiness in each to work for all.

4. Father, whose bounty all creation shows;
Spirit, from whom all life in fullness flows;
Christ, by whose willing sacrifice we live;
To you with grateful hearts ourselves we give.

BLESSING OF ASSEMBLY

Bishop: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.
Bishop: Blessed be the name of the Lord.
All: Now and forever.
Bishop: Our help is in the name of the Lord.
All: Who made heaven and earth.
Bishop: May almighty God bless you...
