LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING I (read in Spanish)

Please be seated.

EZEKIEL 37:1-14
The hand of the LORD came upon me,
and he led me out in the spirit of the LORD and set me in the center of the plain,
which was now filled with bones.
He made me walk among the bones in every direction
so that I saw how many they were on the surface of the plain.
How dry they were!
He asked me:
Son of man, can these bones come to life?
I answered, "Lord GOD, you alone know that."
Then he said to me:
Prophesy over these bones, and say to them:
Dry bones, hear the word of the LORD!
Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones:
See! I will bring spirit into you, that you may come to life.
I will put sinews upon you, make flesh grow over you,
cover you with skin, and put spirit in you so that you may come to life and know that I am the LORD.
I, Ezekiel, prophesied as I had been told,
and even as I was prophesying I heard a noise;
it was a rattling as the bones came together, bone joining bone.
I saw the sinews and the flesh come upon them,
and the skin cover them, but there was no spirit in them.
Then the LORD said to me:

Prophesy to the spirit, prophesy, son of man,
and say to the spirit: Thus says the Lord GOD:
From the four winds come, O spirit,
and breathe into these slain that they may come to life.
I prophesied as he told me, and the spirit came into them;
they came alive and stood upright, a vast army.
Then he said to me:
Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel.
They have been saying,
"Our bones are dried up,
our hope is lost, and we are cut off."
Therefore, prophesy and say to them: Thus says the Lord GOD:
O my people, I will open your graves
and have you rise from them,
and bring you back to the land of Israel.
Then you shall know that I am the LORD,
when I open your graves and have you rise from them,
O my people!
I will put my spirit in you that you may live,
and I will settle you upon your land;
thus you shall know that I am the LORD.
I have promised, and I will do it, says the LORD.

The Word of the Lord.

JOHN 7:37-39

It is customary for men wearing academic garb, although not for women, to have their caps removed during the Gospel and homily.

HOMILY

Please be seated.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please stand.

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father
 before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
 and by the Holy Spirit
 was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead
 and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Response: Lord, hear our prayer.

English:

For the Church throughout the world: may divisions which separate Christians, one from another, be overcome so that there may be one fold under the one Shepherd, Jesus the Christ: let us pray to the Lord.

Vietnamese:

For peacemakers, for an end to the shedding of blood and every form of terrorism, for victims of war, for the safety of our men and women in the Armed Services, and for the well-being of their families: let us pray to the Lord.

French:

For refugees, the poor, and the defenseless, especially the unborn, and for those rejected because of illness, ability, race or ethnicity; for all those who live on the margins of society: let us pray to the Lord.

Irish:

For all whose hearts are troubled, for all who live in fear, for all who doubt God's presence, that this Jubilee of Mercy will assure them of God's closeness and bring them peace: let us pray to the Lord.

Luganda:

For this University of Our Lady, for all who live, work, study, and do research here: may the mission of Catholic higher education be a voice of hope in a society seeking wisdom and insight: let us pray to the Lord.

Korean:

For those who farm and live off the land; for all who work the fields to feed others; for those who suffer the effects of pollution and environmental degradation; and for all who strive to protect the environment: let us pray to the Lord.

Italian:

For God's blessings upon the Class of 2016: as it faces the challenges and opportunities of the years ahead, may it seek first to serve others in the spirit of Christ: let us pray to the Lord.

Chinese:

For the graduates of the Class of 2016: may what they have learned and received here at Notre Dame, inside the classroom, within the residence halls, and in their faith communities, help shape their future lives as responsible citizens in the world community: let us pray to the Lord.

Spanish:

For the families and friends of our graduates, and in appreciation for their constant love and support over the past years: may God richly bless them for their generosity of spirit: let us pray to the Lord.

English:

For all the deceased, including members of the Notre Dame family who passed away this academic year: faculty, staff, parents, alumni, trustees, University benefactors, and Holy Cross religious; we remember in a special way these students who died this past year: Rebecca Draper Townsend, incoming first-year student, Karabo Moleah, third year, Law School, Jake Scanlan and Theresa Sagartz, both juniors in the Class of 2017: may they be raised up by the power of God's Spirit to the joys of eternal life: let us pray to the Lord.

Draw Us In the Spirit's Tether..... FRIEDEL

*Draw us in the Spirit's tether; For when humbly, in thy name,
Two or three are met together, Thou art in the midst of them:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Touch us now thy garment's hem.*

*All our meals and all our living make as sacraments of thee,
That by caring, helping, giving, we may true disciples be.
Alleluia! Alleluia! We will serve thee faithfully.*

*As the faithful used to gather in the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God the Father break the bread and bless the cup, Alleluia! Alleluia! So knit thou our friendship up.*

In this free land by you our lot is cast;
Oh, be our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay;
Your Word our law, your paths our chosen way.

BLESSING OF THE FLAG

Then the hymn continues:

3. Now with the mind of Christ set us on fire;
That unity may be our great desire;
Give joy and peace; give faith to hear your call;
And readiness in each to work for all.

4. Father, whose bounty all creation shows;
Spirit, from whom all life in fullness flows;
Christ, by whose willing sacrifice we live;
To you with grateful hearts ourselves we give.
