9-6-2011

NDLS Update 09/06/2011

Notre Dame Law School

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarship.law.nd.edu/ndls_updates

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation
http://scholarship.law.nd.edu/ndls_updates/125

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the Law School History at NDLScholarship. It has been accepted for inclusion in NDLS Updates by an authorized administrator of NDLScholarship. For more information, please contact lawdr@nd.edu.
NDLS Update is a weekly email newsletter of news, events, and opportunities for Law School faculty and staff. For daily NDLS news and updates, please visit Today@NDLS.

Upcoming Events

Faculty Colloquium is today at 12:30. Peg Brinig presents the paper “Revisiting Mary Ann Glendon: Abortion, Divorce, and Rights Talk in Western Law.”

The CCHR program Ahmadinejad’s Iran: A Threat to Peace, Human Rights and International Law will be held on September 7th at 7:30 p.m. Professor Cotler, Chair of the International Responsibility to Prevent Coalition to Combat the Iranian Threat (R2P), will discuss the report adopted unanimously by the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Canadian Parliament and self-described as “one of the most important reports that has been issued by any Parliament on the Iranian threat.” A light reception will follow the lecture. > Read More CCHR Lecture by Osvaldo Hurtado, former President of Ecuador on Thursday, September 8.

“Independence of the Judiciary, Freedom of the Press and other Constitutional Developments in Ecuador”
12:30pm – 1130 Eck Hall of Law
A light lunch will be served. > Read More

To celebrate the remarkable achievement, the life, and work of John M. Finnis, Gerard Bradley and Notre Dame Law School are hosting an all-day conference at the Law School on September 9, 2011. Read More

NDLS Community
Our own antitrust expert Joe Bauer is highlighted on the ND home page on the merger of AT&T and T-Mobile. The story was written by our PR liaison Shannon Chapla. Since the release of the story on August 31st, there were four different comments that were published: (1) the quote; (2) the remark about the DOJ suing only when they thought they had a strong case, which was in an AP wire article; (3) a longer piece in Forbes, citing him several times; and (4) September 2nd BNA ATRR.

The first two were printed a combined 100+ places, from the NY Times and Washington Post, to NPR, CBS and ABC, to the Helena Montana newspaper and papers in Australia, Taiwan and India. > Read Article

NDLS celebrated the first Football Friday of the season with food, fun, and colorful apparel of their favorite team.

NDLS Profile

Meet Rob Kelly

Rob Kelly joined the Notre Dame Law School in July, coming to work with us through the Notre Dame Rotation Program. He was a 2003 graduate of the joint undergraduate engineering and MBA program, and worked with Honeywell International in Ohio after graduation. A huge Notre Dame fan, Rob notes that being away from Notre Dame during his tenure at Honeywell “only reinforced my affinity for Notre Dame, and I couldn’t stop thinking about coming back to work here.” When the opportunity arose, Rob and his wife Starr moved their growing family (Aidan is now 7, Keelin, 4, Brynn, 2, and “Baby” is due in November!) here just over five years ago. In an interview this fall, we asked Rob to tell us more about the ND Rotation Program, and also share more of his personal story with us. We learned he is a happy husband and proud father, a winning football coach, and that he loves to sing, among much else. If you haven’t already met Rob, he welcomes visitors in his office (1156 Eck Hall), where he will be through the fall semester before the Rotation Program moves him to another location on campus. In the meantime, you can also read the interview with Rob here. Please join in extending a warm welcome to Rob during his time with us here at NDLS!

---

Notes from the Kresge Library

Did you know that the law library recently purchased an enormous collection of e-books available to the law library and university community? Read more about these online collections.

Have a submission for The NDLS Update? Send an email by noon on Thursday for inclusion the following Tuesday, to libnews@nd.edu, or contact NDLS Update editors Susan Good or Beth Given.

Kresge Law Library—Notre Dame Law School
P.O. Box 535 Notre Dame, IN 46556-0535
P: 574.631.7024 F: 574.631.6371
E: libnews@nd.edu